

HAUMEA ECOVERSITY

Transformative
Ecoliteracy
for a Better World

A MEMBER OF ECOVERSITIES ALLIANCE

Creatives, educators & cultural professionals are being called to lead in response to today's intersecting environmental & social challenges.

Haumea Ecovercity offers transformative ecological literacy— ecoliteracy & eco-ethics training.

With Cathy Fitzgerald
& trusted facilitators

We help you & your team gain clarity & confidence to:

embed internationally recognised eco-ethics in programmes & policies

choose eco-frameworks & inclusive language

creatively inspire workplaces or communities bioregionally or nationally

avoid overwhelm to navigate this eco-cultural turn with ease

More information
haumeaecoversity.com/cpd

WHAT WE OFFER

- Introductory Webinars
(60–90 mins) key ecoliteracy ideas & frameworks clearly explained
- Half-Day In-Person Training
to envision ecoliteracy & eco-ethics in strategy & policy
- Talks & Guest Lectures: for teams, conferences or BA, MA, PhD academic programmes
- Mentoring (1:1 or group)
tailored and confidential
- Haumea Ecovercity Membership:
— ideal for upskilling creatives & team members, you may be supporting. Provides accelerated collective ecoliteracy & eco-ethics learning and community.

+353(0)87 285 7129

More information
haumeaecoversity.com/cpd

WE WORK WITH

- Local Authorities
- Arts Offices / Dept
- Universities, Libraries
Cultural Organisations
- Bioregional, Regenerative
Community Organisations
- Cultural Leaders & Creatives

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

"The session encourages thought & consideration about our value systems. Attendees from Wexford Co. Council's Libraries, Arts, Environment, Housing & Town Management gave very positive feedback."

Elizabeth Howard

Creative Ireland Wexford Officer

"Cathy delivered so professionally, calmly and clearly. I appreciate you giving us your time & expertise."

Rhona McGrath

Roscommon Co. Arts Officer

"Cathy provided crucial context for our Creative Ireland Climate Action projects & opened new perspectives for our work."

Lisa Fingleton

Eco-social artist, farmer
Barna Way, Co. Kerry

ABOUT

Since 2019, Dr Cathy Fitzgerald has guided Haumea Ecovercity.

A New Zealander, now living in Ireland for over 30 years, Cathy is a popular ecoliteracy & eco-ethics facilitator, an accredited ESD Earth Charter Educator & respected ecosocial artist researcher.

Haumea Ecovercity draws from Cathy's transdisciplinary experience in:

- Research science
- NGO Eco-forestry & rewilding since 2008 of Hollywood Forest in rural Carlow, featured in The Irish Times, The US Centre for Humans & Nature & The International Library of Creative Sustainability
- Local Authorities Art Services- as inaugural ArtLinks Director, supporting artists' professional development
- Doctoral EcoCreative Practice Research inspires Haumea Ecovercity as a growing global community advancing pioneering ecopedagogy & ecoethics for ecoliteracy

CONTACT CATHY

+353(0)87 285 7129

linkedin.com/in/cathyfitz

E: cathy@haumea-ecoversity-hub.com

EDUCATOR

PRINTED ON 100% RECYCLED PAPER

Client List

Ireland:

- Carlow, Kilkenny, Kildare, Meath, Roscommon, Leitrim & Mayo Arts Offices/Depts, Creative Ireland Wexford
- IMMA Earth Rising, CREATE
- Cowhouse Studios; Burren College of Art
- HOMETREE, Brewery Lane Writers Festival
- Dublin City Arts with The Dock Leitrim
- DCU Climate & Society Conference
- Mary Robinson Conference; Greywood Arts
- Limerick School of Art & Design MA Space
- NUIG Moore Institute, Maynooth Cultural Geography Dept., VISUAL Carlow

International:

- Earth Charter: Prof. Emeritus Peter Blaze Corcoran & Prof. Emeritus Sam Crowell (USA)
- Dr Rhys Jones, WINTEC Pukenga (NZ)
- Ecoart pioneer Prof Newton Harrison (USA)
- London RCA Doctoral Training (UK)
- Rupert Read, Middlesex University (UK)
- Creative Carbon Scotland; Chrysalis (UK)
- Valand Art College (Sweden)